All teas are available for purchase by the bag to brew at home.

Black Teas

Assam (Northern India) A full-bodied cup with a malty taste; the perfect morning tea. Takes well to milk & sugar.

Darjeeling (India) A full tea with delicate floral overtones, often called the "Queen of Indian Teas."

Earl Grey A traditional afternoon tea, made from a blend of teas and oil of Bergamot, with a citrus fragrance.

Earl Grey à la Crème Earl Grey with notes of creamy vanilla.

Earl Grey Lavender Earl Grey blended with fragrant lavender flowers.

Smoky Earl Grey Earl Grey with a touch of smokiness for "a bit more oomph".

Scottish Highlands (India, Sri Lanka, China) A bright and lively blend of Assam, Ceylon, and Keemun teas with a full and robust flavor.

English Breakfast (India, Sri Lanka, Africa) Robust blend of teas that create the perfect tea to start the day.

Irish Breakfast (India) A blend of Assam teas with a brisk flavor and a rich malty undertone.

PG Tips (India, Sri Lanka, Africa) England's most popular tea, a blend of Assam, Ceylon, & Kenyan teas with a rich, refreshing flavor. Only the premier growth tips (i.e. the "PG" tips) of the plant are harvested.

Lapsang Souchong (China) Long-leaf tea leaves are dried over pine fires to produce this tea's distinctive smoky or "tarry" flavor.
